Britons: Jacobites at home and Jacobites abroad
Conference to be held at the British Academy, 10 Carlton House Terrace, London.

Day One: 11 July 2007

9.00-9.30 Registration
9.30 Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie
9.45 Jonathan Clark ‘The Many Restorations of Jacobite Studies 1766-2006’
10.15 Patrick O’Brien ‘James II, the Stuarts and the Formation of a Fiscal-Naval State’
10.45 Discussion
11.00 Coffee
11.45 Nathalie Genet Rouffiac ‘The Irish regiments in the service of France: a way to Integration’
11.45 Murray Pittock ‘The Jacobite Army in 1745: recruitment, organisation and structures of command’
12.15 Discussion

13.00-14.00 Lunch
14.00 Eamon O’Ciardha ‘Coote, Lally and the struggle for India - Jacobite sequel, Jacobin prequel’
14.20 Patrick Clarke de Dromantin ‘The economic contribution of Jacobites in France in the 18th century’ (in French, synopsis in English)
14.40 Steve Murdoch ‘Tilting at Windmills: The Jacobite Order del Toboso as a Jacobite social network’
15.00 Anne Gardiner ‘Dryden’s Unflinching Jacobitism’
15.20 Discussion
15.45 Tea
16.15 David Womersley ‘Swift and the Art of Political Trepanning’
16.45 Ian Higgins ‘Swift and Charles Leslie’
17.15 Discussion and close

Day Two: 12 July

9.30 Christopher Duffy, ‘Concealed Attachments? The Case of Prince Friedrich of Hessen Cassel and his corps in Scotland’
10.00 Daniel Szechi ‘Retrieving Captain Le Cocq’s Plunder: plebeian outrage and the aftermath of the ‘15’
10.30 Discussion
10.45 Coffee
11.15 Paul Monod ‘Thomas Carte, the Druids and British National Identity’
11.45 Edward Corp ‘The Jacobite Court in Rome, 1719-1766’
12.20 Discussion
12.45 Lunch
14.00 Aidan Bellenger ‘Saving the Cardinal King: Henry Benedict Stuart and the Hanoverians’
14.20 Gabriel Glickman ‘The English Catholic clergy and the creation of a Jacobite Church’
14.40 Niall MacKenzie ‘State Prisoners and Prisoners of War in 1746’
15.00 Kieran German ‘The Jacobite magistrates of Aberdeen: a case study’
15.20 Discussion
15.45 Tea
16.15 Alan Hobson “‘By a principle of duty’ English Jacobites who were ‘out’ in the ‘15 and ‘45. A Reassessment”
16.35 Richard Sharp ‘Subscribing to a common identity: Tories, High Churchmen, Jacobites and Nonjurors’
16.55 Andrew Starkie ‘Charles Leslie’s charge of Socianism against Dr. Tillotson reconsidered’
17.15 Stephane Genet ‘Swedish officers for Charles Edward: a French secret mission, 1746’
17.35 Jonathan Oates ‘Jacobitism and anti-Jacobitism in Berkshire’
17.55 Discussion
18.30 Close

The Conference Dinner will be held at the Oxford and Cambridge Club, 71 Pall Mall, London SW1. It will be preceded by a sung recital by Janiculum of Jacobite and Stuart Music from 7.30 to 8.00 p.m. (19.30-20.00). Please assemble at 7.15 (19.15) for drinks. The Conference dinner will start at 8.00 p.m. (20.00).